County Officials Meet Over Tax Problems

The Coffee County Commission met on Thursday, February 7, in a special called meeting with the county map, property appraiser, tax assessor and tax collector to discuss problems that occur too often when paying taxes.

"We got a lot of comments from people around the county," stated Commissioner Rex Boutwell, "and hear comments about problems when they go to pay taxes. We need to quit having so many complaints, and that means we have to keep the mistakes from recurring."

"The problem," answered Tax Collector Ronnie Burns, "was when corrections were made one year, they weren't carried over to the books the following year. We have discussed the problem and don't think it will happen again in the future."

"I won't make any excuses," stated Tax Assessor Mack McKinney. "I have stressed to my help to be careful, but I can't always be there, and mistakes are made. We have changed taxes three times in the past year and a half, and it did not help."

"Mr. Barlow has done a wonderful job," declared McKinney, "and I pray he gets the next contract. I would like to make a request of the Commission - please take it off where I have to keep supplementing books. I have ordered 18,000 assessment sheets, but will need at least 10,000 more. Also, if people have a problem with their taxes, they should come to me first."

"The problem is that the operation is not running smoothly," said mapper Roland Roberts. "I suggest the Commission appoint someone to go to each office and actually see what is going on. The solution to our problem is to take the geographical and property cards and put them on a computer disc. This will speed up the process. When I did my job, all the cards were in place, but after I turn them over, their upkeep is unstable. I've seen cards lying on desks and piled in corners." Under the present system, "the county can't afford a computer system. I have asked for individual assessment sheets for each piece of property; this will help! One other way we can help is for the assessor to check the records daily and file them, and put them on a computer disc. This will speed up the process. When I did my job, all the cards were in place, but after I turn them over, their upkeep is unstable. I've seen cards lying on desks and piled in corners."

Audit Reveals Tax Assessor Owes State Funds

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, February 11, at the courthouse in Elba, and heard that Tax Assessor Mack McKinney may have to make back payments to the State Revenue Department for not adjusting tax rates on automobiles.

The County Commission raised the county's tax millage in September, and McKinney began collecting the new rates on everything except automobiles. A recent audit revealed the mistake, and as soon as a total charge can be determined, McKinney will be presented a bill.

County Attorney Joe Sawyer reported, "You have only two choices - do nothing, or ask the State to forgive the debt. If you don't do anything, Mr. McKinney will have to pay the money out of his own pocket."

The Commission instructed Sawyer to advise the State Revenue Department of the circumstances involved and forgive the debt. However, the Commission said it clear it would not help pay the debt if it is not forgiven.

A major problem again arose over the make-up of the Advisory Planning Committee, and again no solution was found. The committee, when selected, will define problems and set objectives in the jail problem. The make-up of the committee again caused heated debate because of concern over which parts of the county would be the most power. One committee member said, "I received a 'thank you' from the State."

Sam Collier is Chairman of the Advisory Council on Vocational Education for Coffee County. The Council is to assist in the development of local plans for vocational and occupational education. Its recommendations are made to the local board, but can influence State Department planners also.

To increase public input in the vocational planning process, the State Advisory Council is encouraging local councils to hold public meetings. These meetings, designed to allow citizens to voice their opinions and react to recommendations made to the State Council, are to be planned and organized by the local councils.

A planning guide for holding public meetings is available and has been sent to local council chairmen through the Technical Assistance Committee of the State Advisory Council.

BRAINSTORMS

WITH FERRIN COX

We saw a TV special report on an artist that was selling commodities such as gold and oil by telephone and getting rich, "cause they were going when the unsuspecting buyer wanted his money back. We have received these calls, but were smart enough not to go to a bunch of money to send them. Then, to know we were talking to crooks... they were trying to sell us crude oil this last time, and we now find it is against the law to sell crude oil in America that way. Another local citizen told us of allowing the feds to send him some information about the deal, and then on the next phone call getting cussed out for saying "no" to the deal. Again, it is reported this is the way they work... once you say "no", they get insulted and try to get your money that way. Watch out!

A couple of weeks ago we reported that Mrs. Shirley Wise had begun collecting items related to the history of Elba High School, with plans for displaying them in a special heritage room at a later date. Well, even though several folks have mentioned they have items that should be in the display, Mrs. Wise hasn't exactly been overrun with donations. If you have something to give, mark it as yours, and see that she gets it at the high school library.

Teddy Kennedy is claiming victory in the state of Maine. Now he only got 39% of the vote compared to 44% for Jimmy Carter, but he calls this a victory. We have seen losers do this before, and instead of being winners, they wound up back on the farm viewing the south end of north-bound mules. The only victory Teddy can claim is that he didn't get beat as bad as before. Earlier he had said he "must win in Maine and New Hampshire," but has now revised that statement. We already see Kennedy beat this year, but not getting chills thinking all he wanted was a trial run to find out what would happen when he runs in 1984. We have hopes that 1980 will send him to the mule barn.

The FBI operation "Abacan" is having some interesting effects. Right now, it seems those getting the worst end of the whole thing are those who helped the FBI agents in their work. The owner of the company that helped the agents rent the house has already been called before a legislative committee to testify if he took payoffs to write the letter of recommendation. It happens every time -- the whistle blowers and/or their friends get the worst end of the deal.

With all the cold weather we are having, it is hard to realize that now is the time to get spring gardens started. Some folks have already got their home gardens started, and within a few weeks, those who haven't started will be too late.

Retired Teachers To Meet in Enterprise
The Coffee County Retired Teachers will meet February 26, 1980, at 2:00 p.m. at 12:00 Noon at Bailey's in Ingram, 897-2453, for February 21, for reservations.

NEWS from your PHARMACY
BY: KRIS SCARBOROUGH

Vitamins are important in the growth of children and for the proper functioning of the body in adults and children. A well-balanced diet ordinarily provides sufficient vitamins, but in many instances doctors recommend vitamin supplements, especially for growing children.

Generally considered the most important vitamins by medical authorities are Vitamins A, B, C, D and E. Insufficient amounts of vitamins can be the cause of such conditions as Beriberi, scurvy, rickets, nerve conditions and other disorders. All of these can be prevented with sufficient quantities of the right vitamins.

Vitamins for every need are available in our complete pharmaceutical department. Bring your prescription to us for accurate compounding. We are here to serve your needs.

THE PRESSBOX

By: Ricky Mulvan Sports Editor

The Elba High basketball team got back on the winning track last week against Zion Chapel, and maybe the come-from-behind win will get 'em fired up about the rest of the season. We've got too good a team to be 4-12, and now that the players know they can win, maybe they'll start a winning streak!

There was a real good crowd at the game, and Coach Kirkland stated he thought it made the difference in the fourth quarter. The crowd got a little rowdy at times, but the cheering sounded "great."

There have been a lot of coaching changes in recent weeks, and quite a few jobs still remain open. There are still "Vacancy" signs up at Geneva, Florida, Bradley and Daleville, while new faces will be pacing the sidelines at Andalusia, Greenville, Brundidge and Monroe County.

The latest change came last week when Florida's Mike Sasser resigned to go to Monroe County. Sasser, who coached at Elba for 2 years a couple of years ago, had been at Elba only one year, and his leaving was a surprise.

Greenville signed Eufaula assistant Wayne Woodham, and with the athletes over at the Butler County School, their program should be headed for better days.

The Olympics started Tuesday, and even though I don't know a lot about the Winter events, I am looking forward to the 2 weeks of competition. I have never skied, but I did do some sledding one Christmas in Cleveland, and it is fun to watch 'em battle the snow.

Alabama State is now ranked #1 in the nation, and the Hornets are probably right where they belong! Bama State has one of the top coaches in the nation, and some of the best players, and they own a 21-1 record. Not bad!

Enterprise Junior College was rolling along last week in first place in the JuCo standings, then got bumped by the lowly Saints of Lurleen B. Wallace. The Saints were 0-21 prior to the win, but are now red hot.

The Boys Basketball League ends this week with a double-header, and it has been a very successful year. The play has improved greatly, and the boys are getting a good foundation in the game. Come out Saturday, and watch a game! Oh, yeah, don't forget to cheer!

Just in case you haven't heard, Alabama beat Auburn 64-62 last week in the Jacksonville game at Andalusia. Wayne Hamilton led the Tide with 22 points, while Mark Robbins hit 14 to lead Auburn.

This week's CLIPPER POLL again reflects the top prep teams in South Alabama, and should help decide favorites for the upcoming tournaments.

Elba Tigers Snap Losing Streak, Zonk Zion Chapel 50-48

The Elba Tigers snapped their 11 game losing streak last Friday night with an exciting come-from-behind win over the Zion Chapel Rebels. The Tigers trailed by 10-points at the half, but rallied for the win and topped their record 4-12.

There was a real good crowd at the game, and Coach Kirkland stated he thought it made the difference in the fourth quarter. The crowd got a little rowdy at times, but the cheering sounded "great."

There have been a lot of coaching changes in recent weeks, and quite a few jobs still remain open. There are still "Vacancy" signs up at Geneva, Florida, Bradley and Daleville, while new faces will be pacing the sidelines at Andalusia, Greenville, Brundidge and Monroe County.

The latest change came last week when Florida's Mike Sasser resigned to go to Monroe County. Sasser, who coached at Elba for 2 years a couple of years ago, had been at Elba only one year, and his leaving was a surprise.

Greenville signed Eufaula assistant Wayne Woodham, and with the athletes over at the Butler County School, their program should be headed for better days.

The Olympics started Tuesday, and even though I don't know a lot about the Winter events, I am looking forward to the 2 weeks of competition. I have never skied, but I did do some sledding one Christmas in Cleveland, and it is fun to watch 'em battle the snow.

Alabama State is now ranked #1 in the nation, and the Hornets are probably right where they belong! Bama State has one of the top coaches in the nation, and some of the best players, and they own a 21-1 record. Not bad!

Enterprise Junior College was rolling along last week in first place in the JuCo standings, then got bumped by the lowly Saints of Lurleen B. Wallace. The Saints were 0-21 prior to the win, but are now red hot.

The Boys Basketball League ends this week with a double-header, and it has been a very successful year. The play has improved greatly, and the boys are getting a good foundation in the game. Come out Saturday, and watch a game! Oh, yeah, don't forget to cheer!

Just in case you haven't heard, Alabama beat Auburn 64-62 last week in the Jacksonville game at Andalusia. Wayne Hamilton led the Tide with 22 points, while Mark Robbins hit 14 to lead Auburn.

This week's CLIPPER POLL again reflects the top prep teams in South Alabama, and should help decide favorites for the upcoming tournaments.

Neither team could get much going early in the game, as both defenses dominated play. However, Zion Chapel began to show some life in the second half, and led 12-10 at the half. Elba, however, pulled into a 27-17 halftime lead.

Elba began to come back in the third stanza and pulled within 35-31 late in the period. The Rebs hung tough, however, and used clutch free-throw shooting to stay ahead. Glen Johnson hit a jumper from the baseline with 13 left to put Elba on top 49-48, and when Zion was whittled for an offensive foul on their next trip down the court it was all over!

Glen Johnson hit 24-points, and Jeff Senn to only 4-points in the second half to lead the Tigers' comeback.

The Men's Basketball League season is winding down, and it's still a two-team race between the Hickman Hawks and New Hope. The Hawks led with a 14-1 record, but New Hope is right behind them at 13-2. Madison 1, Clayton 8, McBride 6, Ward 16.

Complete league standings are: Hickman Hawks 14-1, New Hope 13-2, Peoples Bank 10-5, Elba Jaycees 7-7, English Well Drilling 7-8, Foxfire Sporting Goods 7-8, National Security 4-10, Work Release 2-12, and Zion Chapel 2-13.

Problems Of Aging To Be Discussed At ESIC

A three-hour seminar on the positive aspects of aging designed for older adults is scheduled at Enterprise State Junior College from 9:00 a.m. to noon Tuesday, Feb. 19, 1980. Mrs. Mary Bauer, director, Continuing Education, announced this week.

The seminar, offered in cooperation with the Wiregrass Mental Health Center, will cover the aging process, dealing with special problems of loss and grief, and enhancing retirement through involvement.

The instructor, Karen Conter, has a Master's Degree in Social Work with emphasis in aging. She has provided training in aging problems and mental health to nurses, mental health professionals and the general public.

"There is no minimum or maximum age requirement for participation," Mrs. Bauer said. "Many who have elderly parents or other loved ones in their household may gain much from the seminar."

No fee will be charged but those interested in attending are urged to register by phone or mail as soon as possible to be sure the course will make. At least ten must be enrolled or the seminar will be cancelled.

To register, obtain information call 347-6050.

Mrs. Jacobs Named Woman Of Achievement By BPW

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs was honored Monday night, February 11, by Elba's Business and Professional Women's Club, as their Woman of Achievement for 1980. Mrs. Jacobs, an enthusiastic member of the club, received the title at a lovely Valentine Banquet, held at Holley's Cafe.

The party room was artistically decorated using the Valentine motif. An elegant pot of red rose buds occupied a special place of interest, and on the card were two words - Congratulations - Howard.

Mrs. Jacobs was fashionably dressed in a multi-colored chiffon gown, with Burgundy accessories.

Gayle White, of Enterprise, presided for program-chairman. Myrtle Sellers, who is in Dothan with her husband, Chick, presented the award to Mrs. Jacobs.

The club presented each of these ladies with a lovely long stemmed red carnation. A well-planned program of all phases of Carrie's life, achievements and accomplishments were revealed or related by the following people: Mrs. Quila Crosby and Mr. Clark Davis, Jr. Rucker, Reverend A. L. Strouder, Enterprise; Mr. Robert Holliman, Mrs. Aliene Ziglar, Mrs. Nellie Martin and Mrs. Sara English of Elba.

Carrie is a native of Coffee County. Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shepherd of near Enterprise. She is the wife of the late Joe Jacobs. Together they were the parents of eight children.

Two of the sons, Paul and Harry, were present for this memorable occasion. After years of marriage, children and full-time employment at Ft. Rucker, Carrie launched out to further education. After four years of night classes at Enterprise Junior College, and Troy University Center, at Ft. Rucker, she was awarded a B.S. degree.

However, she continued her employment at Ft. Rucker. During the twenty-five years there she worked in many different areas of Civil Service, and received many superior performances, promotions and awards.

Carrie has now called it quits. She still is a very energetic and happy lady-not of leisure but of pleasure. She is up and away on flying visits with the children, and finds time for church, civic and social events.

At home she's quite busy painting, writing poetry or engaged in creative crafts. Too, she has time for the grands.

Had you been present at Monday night's banquet, you would have been one of the host of friends and well-wishers sharing an enjoyable evening with the deserving and capable Carrie Jacobs!

The Elba City Council opened bids and purchased a new backhoe, agreed to proclaim March as "Clean-up Elba Month," and Mayor Robert Folsom defended actions of city employees doing work on private property Folsom said belonged to him. Postponed was action on a request for a raise in firemen's pay.

Bids were opened on the purchase of a new tractor and backhoe and the low of four bids was the $24,700 by Elba Tractor Company. Other bidders were Luverne Tractor Company, Golden Tractor Company, and Joe Money Machinery Company, submitting a "No Bid."

The machine was purchased on a unanimous approval of a Council agreed to provide.

Cleo Hawkins motion to buy from the lowest bidder if it met specifications.

Mrs. Sandy Santa Rosa told the Council a local garden club was promoting an anti-litter campaign and requested assistance from the City of Elba. She pointed out that two existing ordinances allowed the city to enforce clean-up of lots, etc.

Police Chief Max Rayburn reported his department had arrested 23 people for littering in recent weeks (Dairy Queen, Big Bear parking lot) and would be continuing this week. He stated that any private citizen could sign a warrant against people seen littering, but they would have to appear in court as a witness.

The machine was purchased on a unanimous approval of a Council agreed to provide.

Folsom passed out copies of a legal form he said was posted on the door of the local railroad depot. Folsom said the railroad was trying to close the section from Elba to Enterprise and he wanted the Council to take some action. Council members agreed to take whatever action necessary.

A quick check of the papers and comparison with similar papers posted last year revealed that this is the annual survey of "Marginal Lines" as required by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Last year this newspaper discussed this matter with several sources in Washington, including the ICC. We received a copy of the regulations that cover this matter, and they REQUIRE the railroad to make this annual survey, after a line has been declared marginal.

Even though the notice closely resembles the one posted last year, it differs in that the Elba line is now in "category 1," or no longer being surveyed but in the group of "All lines or portions of lines which the carrier anticipates will be the subject of an abandonment or discontinuance application to be filed within the 2-year period following the date upon which the diagram, or any amended diagram, is filed with the Commission."

Apparently this means the railroad plans to ask the ICC for permission to discontinue this line. The Council postponed action on the request.

They did assure Driggers the fire department would get some additional room, but would make no promises until all plans had been coordinated.

A discussion on extending sewage for 300 feet on Highland Drive to join collector lines from the Mac Champion subdivision indicated that all councilmen felt it should be done, was legally required, and would be good for expansion of the city. It was pointed out that Champion would be responsible for lines up to the highway right-of-way.

Councilman Jimmy Wise reported a number of telephone calls about the city crews and equipment working on private property near the railroad depot. Folsom quickly said that while grading an alley, the city grader did pull down some posts and a building owned by Southern Supply and Contracting fell down. Folsom said he personally hooked the chain to the machine. The building is reportedly owned by Mayor Folsom and/or members of his family.

Folsom said the firm would pay for all work done by city workers on the property, but not until all other private citizens had done the same. He told the Council that city crews had spent 2 1/2 days working on a sewer line of Roland Powell's. When asked who authorized this, he said he didn't know and didn't know it was going on until later.

Folsom told Wise, "You don't like Bob Folsom, and that is why you are bringing this up." He then said he could bring up some other things embarrassing to others. At this time, Councilman Cleo Hawkins broke in and said Folsom was directing that at him as he had done before, but he had nothing to hide. Folsom denied implicating Hawkins. A short time later, Wise responded to Folsom, "The city crews have done nothing for me at all."

The discussion ended when Folsom asked a representative of this newspaper if our photos were good, and was told that reportedly some other member of the staff had responded to a third of a number of phone calls and had made some pictures.

The city will look into the cost of regularly sweeping the parking lots of the local grocery stores. The consensus of the Council was not to consider the proposal of selling the airport hangars. Reasons were expressed that it could cause problems in later land development, and one councilman reported he had received a standing offer of $5000 more than any the Enterprise man would make.
